

Berlin

Summer in the City

Berlin, the old new capital of Germany is united again. The wall is down since 20 years, Checkpoint Charlie is a memory. More than any place else in Europe, the dramatic end of the cold war is visible in Berlin. This is a city you must experience. Stroll along the Ku'damm where all the city meets to shop or sit in cafes; walk through the Brandenburg Gate, which was off-limits for more than 40 years. This tour takes you to all major sights of this fascinating city where history is still being made.

ITINERARY (subject to change)

1 st DAY:

Departure from Böblingen Panzerkaserne PX parking lot at 7:00 pm. Departure from Heidelberg PHV, P+R parking lot (outside base, near new commissary) at 8:30 pm. Departure from Wiesbaden Hainerberg, military bus stop (Washington street) at 9:45 pm. Departure from Kaiserslautern, Daennerplatz P+R parking lot at 8:30 pm.

2 nd DAY:

After a nice breakfast (not included) in the hotel or in the city of Berlin and a chance to freshen up we discover Berlin on our sightseeing tour (included). We begin our tour near the Kaiser Wilhelm Memorial Church and the Spree River, where so many tried to swim to freedom. The Ku'damm, Berlin's most popular street, gives us a taste of the excitement of this city of glamorous shops and pubs. We will see the Brandenburg gate, travel along Unter Den Linden, Berlin's grand avenue. We will see the Reichstag - the German Parliament - and the „House of Checkpoint Charlie“ where you have the opportunity to visit the museum (entry fee not included). Afterwards we drive back to the Ku'damm where you get free time for shopping (perhaps in the famous department store KaDeWe). Check in at our 4-star Hotel.

3 rd DAY:

After breakfast (included) in the hotel and check out we will depart for Potsdam (extra € 40). Here we will visit the Palace Sanssouci of the Prussian Emperor Friedrich Wilhelm the Great and Cecilienhof, where the historical conference of Potsdam with Churchill, Stalin and President Truman took place. After free time for lunch we depart. Late evening arrival at points of origin.
