

Pearls of Tuscany

Tuscany, 'The cradle of renaissance, the artistic heart, the garden of Italy...' It is not possible to describe in a few lines the fascination that has enchanted generations of visitors! This region gave birth to Michelangelo, Galileo, Leonardo da Vinci, and in return they and so many of their kind gave birth to Tuscany. Ancient towns on hilltops are towering over Italy's most picturesque landscapes, housing priceless collections of arts. The entire area is a museum of humanity. But travelers will also enjoy live on lovely piazzas, great food and fantastic shopping opportunities: Pisa - Florence - Siena - San Gimignano

Via Basel - Lucerne - St. Gotthard - Lugano - Milano - Parma - over the Apennin Mountains - La Spezia to Pisa. Dinner and Breakfast en route (not included).

DAY 2:

Morning arrival in Pisa. With your guide you tour the Campo Dei Miracoli (Square of the miracles) with the Leaning Tower, the Duomo and the Baptistry. Afternoon arrival in our hotel - check-in. After a break we continue with a walking tour of Florence featuring the Basilica Di Santa Croce - where we will find the tombs of Michelangelo, of Galileo and many other great personalities of the past, Ponte Vecchio, Palazzo Vecchio, Accademia, Piazza Signora, the Duomo and many more. Evening free, your tour guide will make suggestions. (Italian dinner appr. €27,- per person).

DAY 3:

After breakfast (included) we are heading to Siena, the ancient rival of Florence and home of the famous Pallio, the traditional horserace in medieval costumes. Our walking tour features the Basilica Di S. Francesco, The Palazzo Pubblico and the unfinished Dome, Santa Maria Dei Servi. After enjoying a typical cappuccino at one of the most beautiful squares of Europe, the Campo of Siena, we depart for San Gimignano. Owing to the great number of clan towers this gem of Tuscany is often called the Manhattan of Italy. Time to stroll along the paved streets, go for some souvenirs or try the "best Italian ice cream". Afterwards we drive to a Tuscan wine growing estate for a wine-tasting (appr. € 12) before we return to our hotel. In the evening we recommend the Tuscan gala dinner, a chance to taste the renown Cuisine and the wine of the Chianti region and enjoy the entertainment of opera singers (not included, appr. €38,- per person).

DAY 4:

After breakfast (included) in the hotel and check out we depart for Switzerland to see the City of Lucerne at the Lake Of The Four Forest Cantons with its famous Lion Monument and the Chapel Bridge. Late evening arrival at points of origins.
